

This site is updated regularly.

This page offers a variety of exciting federal grants for which applications are currently being accepted. These grant opportunities are organized by category; depending on the nature of the grant opportunity, it may be listed in multiple categories. Clicking on the title of the grant will link you to a site with the full grant explanation, as well as instructions for applicants. Federal agencies are constantly issuing new grant opportunities, so please continue to return to my Grants webpage for more information and suggestions.

EDUCATION

Paul Calabresi Career Development Award for Clinical Oncology \(K12\)

Administered By: National Institutes of Health

Eligibility: Public and private institutions of higher education, nonprofits, for-profit organizations other than small businesses

Description: This funding opportunity encourages applications for institutional research career development (K12) programs from applicant organizations that propose to promote the training and career development of translational and clinical trials researchers. The purpose of the Paul Calabresi Career Development Award in Clinical Oncology is to increase the number of clinicians (M.D.s, D.O.s, Pharm.D.s) and basic research scientists (Ph.D.s. or equivalents) who are trained to design and administer hypothesis-based pilot/Phase I, Phase II, and Phase III cancer therapeutic clinical trials in team research settings.

Application Deadline: June 10th, 2011; June 10th, 2012

ENVIRONMENT

North American Wetlands Conservation Fund Climate Change \(Agriculture and Food Research Initiative\)

Administered By: Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Eligibility: Public or private institutions or individuals who have developed partnerships to carry out wetlands conservation projects in the United States, Canada or Mexico.

Description: Funds may be used to acquire, restore or manage real property will be used as wetland ecosystems or other habitat for migratory birds, fish and other wildlife. Projects must provide for long-term conservation.

Application Deadline: March 1st, 2011

Costal Wetlands Planning, Protection and Restoration Act

Administered By: Department of the Interior; Office Fish and Wildlife Service

Eligibility: Agencies designated by the Governor of a coastal State, usually a State natural resource or fish and wildlife agency

Description: To provide competitive matching grants to coastal States for coastal wetlands conservation projects including the acquisition, restoration, and enhancement of wetlands in coastal States.

Application Deadline: June 30th, 2011

HEALTH

National Family Caregiver Support, Title III, Part E \(A\)

Administered By: Department of Health and Human Services; Administration on Aging

Eligibility: Only States and U.S. Territories which have State Agencies on Aging designated by the governors are eligible to receive these grants.

Description: To assist States, Territories in providing multifaceted systems of support services for: (1) Family caregivers; and (2) grandparents or older individuals who are relative caregivers.

Application Deadline: May 24th, 2011

Special Programs for the Aging Title III, Part C Nutrition Services

Administered By: Department of Health and Human Services; Administration on Aging

Eligibility: Public and private institutions of higher education, nonprofits, small businesses, individuals

Description: To provide grants to States to support nutrition services including nutritious meals, nutrition education and other appropriate nutrition services for older Americans in order to maintain health, independence and quality of life.

Application Deadline: May 27th, 2011

Medical Assistance Program

Administered By: Department of Health and Human Services

Eligibility: State and local welfare agencies must operate under an HHS-approved Medicaid State Plan and comply with all Federal regulations governing aid and medical assistance to the needy

Description: To provide financial assistance to States for payments of medical assistance on behalf of cash assistance recipients, children, pregnant women, and the aged who meet income and resource requirements, and other categorically-eligible groups.

Application Deadline: August 15th, 2011

Paul Calabresi Career Development Award for Clinical Oncology \(K12\)

Administered By: National Institutes of Health

Eligibility: Public and private institutions of higher education, nonprofits, for-profit organizations other than small businesses

Description: This funding opportunity encourages applications for institutional research career development (K12) programs from applicant organizations that propose to promote the training and career development of translational and clinical trials researchers. The purpose of the Paul Calabresi Career Development Award in Clinical Oncology is to increase the number of clinicians (M.D.s, D.O.s, Pharm.D.s) and basic research scientists (Ph.D.s. or equivalents) who are trained to design and administer hypothesis-based pilot/Phase I, Phase II, and Phase III cancer therapeutic clinical trials in team research settings.

Application Deadline: June 10th, 2011; June 10th, 2012

Alcohol Research Program

Administered By: Department of Health and Human Services; Office: National Institute of Health

Eligibility: Public or private profit and nonprofit agencies, including State, local, or regional government agencies, universities, colleges, hospitals, academic or research institutions may apply for research grants

Description: To develop a sound fundamental knowledge base which can be applied to the development of improved methods of treatment and more effective strategies for preventing alcoholism and alcohol-related problems.

Application Deadline: December 15th, 2011

HUMANITIES

Promotion of the Humanities Professional Development

Administered By: National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965

Eligibility: Distinguished scholar/teachers; State and local governments; sponsored organizations; public and private nonprofit institutions/organizations; other public institutions/organizations; Federally recognized Indian tribal governments; Native American organizations; U.S. Territories; non-government-general; minority organizations; other specialized groups; and quasi-public nonprofit institutions.

Description: Grants support Summer Seminars and Institutes, Landmarks of American History and Culture Workshops, Picturing America School Collaboration Projects. Awards support direct costs, including salaries, participant stipends, selection costs, travel, and supplies. Projects should engage participants in deepening the knowledge of the subjects they teach and strengthen their capacity to engage students in substantive study of the humanities.

Application Deadline: March 15th, 2011

Promotion of the Humanities Fellowships and Stipends

Administered By: National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965

Eligibility: All applicants must be U.S. citizens, native residents of U.S. jurisdictions, foreign nationals who have been legal residents in the U.S. or its jurisdictions for at least the three years immediately preceding the application deadline. Faculty members at colleges and universities, individuals affiliated with other institutions, independent scholars, and others who work in the humanities are eligible. Applicants need not have advanced degrees, but they must have completed their formal academic training. Active candidates for degrees and persons seeking support for work leading to degrees are not eligible.

Description: Fellowships and Summer Stipends provide support for scholars to undertake full-time independent research and writing in the humanities. Grants are available for 6-to-12-month fellowships and 2 months of summer study. Teaching Development Fellowships strengthen teaching at undergraduate institutions through fellowships of 3 to 5 months. The Awards for Faculty programs support research work conducted by faculty at Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Institutions with High Hispanic Enrollment, and Tribal Colleges and Universities for periods of 2 to 12 months.

Application Deadline: May 1st, 2011

Promotion of the Humanities Challenge Grants

Administered By: National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act of 1965

Eligibility: Any public or private U.S. nonprofit institution or organization working wholly or in part within the humanities may apply

Description: Funds may be applied to a variety of institutional needs which an applicant has demonstrated serve both the humanities and the institution's long-term objectives. The major purpose of an NEH Challenge Grant is to help institutions and organizations attain or sustain a high level of quality in humanities programs or activities by building long-term capital resources.

Application Deadline: May 4th, 2011

Promotion of the Humanities Federal/State Partnership

Administered By: National Endowment for the Humanities

Eligibility: Nonprofit citizen councils in the several States and territories which conform to the requirements of 20 U.S.C. 956(f). If the State matches a certain percentage of the Federal grant and meets other legislated requirements, the Governor may designate the existing Council as a State agency

Description: To promote local, statewide, and regional humanities programming through annual grants to humanities councils in each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and American Samoa.

Application Deadline: June 1st, 2011

Promotion of the Humanities Teaching and Learning Resources and Curriculum Development

Administered By: National Endowment for the Humanities

Eligibility: Humanities Initiatives at Presidentially Designated Colleges and Universities offer Historically Black, High Hispanic Enrollment, and Tribal Colleges and Universities

Description: Humanities Initiatives at Historically Black, High Hispanic Enrollment, and Tribal Colleges and Universities are designed to strengthen humanities teaching and learning at these institutions.

Application Deadline: June 15th, 2011

Promotion of the Humanities Division of Preservation and Access

Administered By: National Endowment for the Humanities

Eligibility: State and local governments; sponsored organizations; public and private nonprofit institutions/organizations; other public institutions/organizations; Federally recognized Indian tribal governments; Native American organizations; U.S. Territories; non-government-general; minority organizations; and other specialized groups; quasi-public nonprofit institutions

Description: To fund projects that will promote preserving, creating, and providing intellectual access to resources held in libraries, museums, archives, historical organizations, and other collections that are important for research, education, and public programming in the humanities.

Application Deadline: July 1st, 2011

Promotion of the Humanities We the People

Administered By: National Institute of Food and Agriculture

Eligibility: Teachers and College Faculty

Description: For Landmarks of American History and Culture: Workshops for School Teachers and Workshops for Community College Faculty and for Picturing America School Collaboration projects, consult the guidelines of the NEH Division of Education Programs. For the National Digital Newspaper Program, consult the guidelines of the NEH Division of Preservation and Access. For other humanities projects on United States history and culture, consult guidelines in NEH Division of Education Programs, NEH Office of Challenge Grants, NEH Office of Digital Humanities, NEH Division of Preservation and Access, NEH Division of Public Programs, and NEH Division of Research Programs.

Application Deadline: October 1st, 2011

REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Home Investment Partnership Program

Administered By: Department of Housing and Urban Development; Office of Community Planning and Development

Eligibility: States, cities, urban counties, consortia of local governments and certain technical and professional service companies

Description: To expand the supply of affordable housing, particularly rental housing, for low and very low income Americans; to strengthen the abilities of State and local governments to design and implement strategies for achieving adequate supplies of decent, affordable housing; to provide both financial and technical assistance to participating jurisdictions, including the development of model programs for developing affordable low income housing; and to extend and strengthen partnerships among all levels of government and the private sector, including for-profit and nonprofit organizations, in the production and operation of affordable housing.

Application Deadline: August 16th, 2011

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Commercial Vehicle Information Systems and Networks

Administered By: Department of Transportation; Office of Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration

Eligibility: Eligible applicants include State Departments of Public Safety, Departments of Transportation, or State Law Enforcement Agencies in any of the fifty States and the District of Columbia

Description: The Commercial Vehicle Information Systems and Networks (CVISN) Program is a key component of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's (FMCSA) drive to improve commercial motor vehicle safety.

Application Deadline: September 30th, 2011

JUDIARY

Child Support Enforcement

Administered By: Department of Health and Human Services; Administration for Children and Families

Eligibility: All States, Tribes also eligible

Description: To enforce the support obligations owed by absent parents to their children, locate absent parents, establish paternity, and obtain child, spousal and medical support.

Application Deadline: July 19th, 2013